CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY

DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long.		USSR (Baltic)		REPORT
DATE OF INFO. REFERENCES This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. Ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.	SUBJECT	Port of Leningrad	1	DATE DISTR.	8 December 1
PLACE ACQUIRED This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. Ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.				NO. OF PAGES	1	25 X 1
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. Ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.					DD.	25 X
This is UNEVALUATED Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 25X1 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.	DATE OF INFO.			REQUIREMENT NO.		20/
Information THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) 1. ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 25X1 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.	PLACE ACQUIRED	:	di d	REFERENCES ship was in the port of Leningrad in May 1954. Two newly-built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 25X1 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.						•
built cruisers were observed at the outfitting wharf at the Baltic Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 25X1 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.			E APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS	S TENTATIVE.	*
Shipyard. Both cruisers were similar, and they were painted with red lead. The hulls were being worked on from scaffolding on the outside. each cruiser was about 175 to 200 meters long. 25X1 2. Two or three empty building-ways were observed at the Zhdanov Shipyard. The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.						25 X 1
The building-ways were served by cable cranes. A large destroyer or light cruiser was observed at the shipyard's outfitting wharf, and two destroyers were seen at the wharf across from the turning basin.	Shipy	ard. Both cruisers	were similar, and ing worked on from	nd they were painted wom scaffolding on the	rith red outside.	25X1
25)		The control of the co	 ; ,
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two	25 X 1
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two	25X1 25X
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable creed at the shipyar	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable cr	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable cr	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable cr	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable cr	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two
	The b	uilding-ways were s cruiser was observ	served by cable cr	ranes. A large destro rd's outfitting wharf,	Shipyard. yer or and two

(MOTE: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".)

SEAN.

SECRET - US OFFICIALS ONLY